

Author Guidelines

Last Update: October 25, 2019

Submission of an article, Notes & Comments, and Book Reviews should be submitted in Microsoft Word via the Journal's web-site <http://www.irlsmp.org/>. Please read the guidelines below before submitting your work. implies that the work described has not been published previously (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture or academic thesis), that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that its publication is approved by all authors and tacitly or explicitly by the authorities responsible where the work was carried out.

Copyrights for articles are retained by the authors, with first publication rights granted to the journal. Authors have rights to reuse, archive, and distribute their own articles after publication. The journal/publisher is not responsible for subsequent uses of the work. Authors shall permit the publisher to apply a DOI to their articles and to archive them in databases.

The publisher and journals have a zero-tolerance plagiarism policy. We check the issue using two methods: a plagiarism prevention tool (iThenticate) and a reviewer check. All submissions will be checked by iThenticate before being sent to reviewers.

Manuscripts should be prepared in Microsoft Word 2007-2016 and submitted online. The editors reserve the right to edit or otherwise alter all contributions, but authors will receive proofs for approval before publication. If you have any questions, please contact the scientific and Executive Manager of the journal.

2. General Requirements

Language

Please write your text in good English (American or British usage is accepted, but not a mixture of these). Use decimal points (not commas); use a space for thousands (10 000 and above). We only accept manuscripts in English language.

Length of paper

Length of 8000-10000 words is preferred.

Page setup

Margins: top-2.54 cm, bottom-2.54 cm, left-2.54 cm, and right-2.54 cm

Pages should be numbered.

We strongly suggest you use the template for preparation of your paper. Please download the template at:

3. Title Page

The title page should be a separate page before the main body. Provide the following information on the title page (in the order given). It should include:

Title

Times New Roman; Size-20; Line Spacing: Double; Paragraph Spacing: Before paragraph-1 line; After paragraph-1 line; Center

The title should be concise and informative. Titles are often used in information-retrieval systems. Avoid abbreviations and formulae where possible, and do not exceed 15 words.

Author names and affiliations

Please indicate the given name and family name clearly. The given name should be in front of the family name. Present the authors' affiliation (where the actual work was done) below the names. Provide the full postal address of each affiliation, including the country name. Then, list the e-mail address, and, if available, the telephone and fax number of each author.

Corresponding Author

Clearly indicate who is willing to handle correspondence at all stages of refereeing and publication, also post-publication. Please add the words “corresponding author” into parentheses after his/her name.

4. General Rules for Text

Please use the following rules for whole text (except for the title), including abstract, keywords, headings, tables, references, acknowledgement, glossary and appendixes.

Front: Times New Roman; Size: 12

The Iranian Review for Law of the Sea and Maritime Policy (IRLSMP)

Paragraph Spacing: Before paragraph – 0.5 line; After paragraph – 0.5 line

Line Spacing: Single

Abstract

A concise and factual abstract is required (maximum length 300 words). The abstract should state briefly the purpose of the research, the principal results and major conclusions. An abstract is often presented separate from the article, so it must be able to stand alone. References should therefore be avoided but, if essential, they must be cited in full, without reference to the reference list.

Keywords

Immediately after the abstract, provide a maximum of 8 keywords, avoiding general and plural terms and multiple concepts (avoid, for example, 'and', 'of'). Be sparing with abbreviations: only abbreviations firmly established in the field may be eligible.

5. Main Body of Manuscripts

Subdivision of the article

Divide your article into clearly defined and numbered sections. Subsections should be numbered 1., 2., (then 1.1, 1.1.1, 1.1.2; 1.2, etc.) (the abstract, acknowledgement, references, glossary and appendix are excluded from the section numbering). Use this numbering also for internal cross-referencing: do not just refer to 'the text.' Authors are urged to write as concisely as possible, but not at the expense of clarity.

Title of subdivision

Heading Level-1: Times New Roman; Size-12; Bold; for example, 1. Introduction

Heading Level-2: Times New Roman; Size-12; Italic; for example, 1.1 Research Methods

Heading Level-3: Times New Roman; Size-12; Normal; for example, 1.1.1 Analysis of Results

Tables

Number tables consecutively in accordance with their appearance in the text. Place descriptions of tables below the table body. Avoid vertical rules. Be sparing in the use of tables and ensure that the data presented in tables does not duplicate results described elsewhere in the article.

Tables should be:

Integrated into the submitted document.

Captioned above the table.

Should NOT be submitted as an image, but as MS Word-Table.

Subtitled with all units of measurement (metric units).

The Iranian Review for Law of the Sea and Maritime Policy (IRLSMP)

Borders setting: all; width: 1/2 pt.

Cited in the text as e.g. Table 1.

Figures, Photos, Illustrations

Figures, photos, illustrations and so forth should be:

Of reproducible quality and attached in TIF format or in JPG format. They should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi.

Integrated as well into the submitted document at the appropriate place.

Accompanied by a clear legend or key, if necessary.

Presented with metric units.

Captioned below the figures.

Formulae

The text size of formulae should be with the same as normal text size.

6. Acknowledgement and Sponsoring information

Put the acknowledgement or sponsoring information after the main body and before the references.

7. References

Responsibility for the accuracy of bibliographic citations lies entirely with the authors. We use the APA style citation system (American Psychological Association). You are referred to the “Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association”, and you may find relevant details at: www.apa.org

Details concerning the APA-style citation system can also be found at <http://linguistics.byu.edu/faculty/henrichsenl/apa/apa01.html>

Citations in the text

Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list (and vice versa). Avoid citation in the abstract. Unpublished results and personal communications should not be in the reference list, but may be mentioned in the text. Citation of a reference as 'in press' implies that the item has been accepted for publication.

Citing and listing of web references

As a minimum, the full URL should be given. Any further information if known (author names, dates, reference to a source publication, etc.) should also be given. Web references can be listed separately (e.g., after the reference list) under a different heading if desired, or they can be included in the reference list.

Text

The Iranian Review for Law of the Sea and Maritime Policy (IRLSMP)

Citations in the text should follow the referencing style used by the American Psychological Association (APA).

List

References should be arranged first alphabetically and then further sorted chronologically if necessary. More than one reference from the same author(s) in the same year must be identified by the letters "a", "b", "c", etc., placed after the year of publication.

DOIs in References

The journal/publisher encourages authors to cite those items (journal articles, conference proceedings, book chapters, technical reports, working papers, dissertations, etc.) that have DOIs. When the cited items have DOIs, the authors should add DOI persistent links to the regular references. The DOI persistent links should be the last elements in the references. The persistent links should be active.

Format of persistent link: <http://dx.doi.org/+DOI> (without "doi:")

Example of persistent link: <http://dx.doi.org/10.1109/2.901164>

The authors or editors may retrieve articles' DOIs at: <http://www.crossref.org/SimpleTextQuery/>

You can open a free account, to start retrieving articles' DOIs. CrossRef allows you check multiple references. Please read this webpage very carefully. Only articles with assigned DOIs can be retrieved through the above mentioned webpage.

8. Glossary

Technical language should be accompanied by a comprehensive glossary of terms used. Entries in the glossary should be presented in alphabetical order.

The Iranian Review for Law of the Sea and Maritime Policy (IRLSMP)

The glossary list should follow the Reference List.

9. Appendix

Please be sparing in the use of appendices unless they are absolutely necessary, The appendixes should be numbered as, e.g. Appendix 1, Appendix 2, etc.

10. Privacy Statement

The names and E-mail addresses entered in this journal's site will be used exclusively for the purposes of this journal and will not be made available for any other purpose or to any other party.

11. Book Reviews Format and Citation Guide

Book reviews have a 1000-3000word limit (including footnotes) and should be in 10 point Times New Roman. Footnotes should also be kept to a minimum. The format for the review should be as follows;

Introduction (briefly introducing the work under discussion and author's thesis), Summary (restating the main claims of the author. Furthermore, the summary should be short and illustrating the points and sub-points of the author), Body of paper (the largest part of the review in which you elaborate your thesis and move steadily through the criteria you have chosen to assess the book), conclusion (wrap up your words within a short paragraph concerning the importance of the book).

Reviewers should include all relevant information relating to the book reviewed:

It should include the title of the book reviewed in italics, followed by the edition of the book being reviewed in parentheses "(")" if more than one edition has been published. This should be followed by the name(s) of the author(s)/editor(s) with surname/family name in all capitals. The following publication information should also be included: place of publication, name of publisher, year of publication, total number of pages inclusive of the index (separate subtotals for preliminary matter, the tables and main text should be provided where they are separately numbered), and the type of binding (softcover/hardcover/ebook).

For example:

Principles of Public International Law (2003), 6th edition, by Ian BROWNLIE. Oxford: Oxford University Press, xlii + 742 pp. Softcover.

The byline should be flush right and the reviewer's name be preceded by "reviewed by" in italics.
